ETERNAL UNIVERSITY, BARU SAHIB

Research Promotion and Incentive Policy

Preamble

Research & Development and Extension are key functions of a University apart from teaching. A good quality research and its dissemination to wider academic and research audience on the one hand and its applied content to its users for enhancing productivity and quality of life on the other, are intrinsic to the academician researchers.

Performance and Reputation of a University is measured in terms of research outcomes such as Research Publications, Patents, Copyrights, Extramural Research Grants received, Consultancy provided and Revenue earned etc. Eternal University believes in inculcating robust Research Culture by involving Faculty Members/Research Scholars/Students at all levels to improve their learning curves. To encourage its academic staff and research fellows for their research activities, Eternal University, notifies the current Research Promotion Policy which covers sufficient incentives for Faculty Members, Research Scholars and Students engaged in various research incubation activities.

Research Promotion Policy comprises incentives in the form of following categories. -

- I) Incentives for research projects, publications and research related activities
- II) Financial assistance for pursuing Ph.D.
- III) Financial assistance for attending national and international conferences and faculty development programs
- IV) Financial assistance in the form of research fellowship
- V) Xeroxing facility for PG students

Background

The university has always felt the need for promotion of Research through its Students, Scholars and Faculty members. A need for well-considered and tangible output oriented 'Research Promotion Policy" (RPP) could hardly be ever emphasized and hence this document.
