Report on the student attributes facilitated by the Institution

The overriding objective of education is the all-round development of a student's personality with a holistic perspective concerned with the development of every student's intellectual, emotional, social, physical, artistic, creative and spiritual potentials. It seeks to engage students in the teaching/learning process and encourages personal and collective responsibility so that they bloom in their all aspects. To foster all round development of a student, there is a need to strike a balance between syllabi curriculum, co-curricular and extracurricular activities. Co-curricular activities give the students an opportunity to develop particular skills and exhibit their non-academic abilities. Extracurricular activities offer the students an opportunity to work with others and gain sense of working culture of togetherness. There are various types of extracurricular activities conducted in the university, which offer students, an opportunity to work with others and to gain essential life skills. Though numerous extracurricular activities exist, the following activities are more prominently conducted in our university:

Chhabil Seva Event

In 1606, Guru Arjan Dev Ji (Fifth Sikh Guru) was martyred on the orders of the Mughal Emperor Jahangir. He was subjected to severe torture and eventually made to sit on the burning hot plate, with hot sand poured over his body. During this ordeal, Guru Arjan Dev Ji requested water for his followers who were distressed by the events. To commemorate Guru Arjan Dev's martyrdom and his spirit of tolerance and compassion, Sikhs began the tradition of setting up Chhabils to distribute cold sweetened water to everyone, irrespective of caste, creed, or religion. June month serves as a reminder of Guru Arjan Dev's sacrifice and the Sikh values of selfless service, humanity, and the importance of caring for all human beings. This tradition is carried out not in Punjab and other parts of India but also globally, wherever Sikh communities are present. Also, 21 June considered as longest day of the year. On 21 June 2024, the Students of Eternal University organized Chhabil at university campus. This event was successfully completed with the help of New girls Hostel Staff, Mess In-charge, Mess workers and students of different Colleges. With the blessing of Dr. Davinder Singh (Chancellor), Dr. Jaswinder Singh (Vice-Chancellor), Dr. A. S. Ahluwalia (Pro Vice-Chancellor), Dr. T. S. Benipal (Dean Academics Affairs) and all faculty and staff members contributed according to their faith.
