The Kalgidhar Trust came up to establish it's second Drug De-Addiction Centre in Himachal Pradesh, "The Akal Drug De-Addiction and Rehabilitation Centre" at Baru Sahib in Sirmour district of Himachal Pradesh in July 2016.

This is the only private centre in Himachal Pradesh having women's IPD facilities. Built on the divine valley at village Baru Sahib, the centre offers healing in nature amidst beautiful mountains, scenic beauty, clean air to breathe and spiritual resonance of Gurdwara Sahib.

It is a 50-bedded centre with OPD and IPD facilities. Catering to rural low-income group patients, this centre also provides holistic treatment, combining medicines, yoga and spiritual therapy. The centre is set-up in a 250-bedded General Hospital, Akal Charitable Hospital, Baru Sahib where various specialities and basic investigation facilities are available.
