

Neevia Thalyari
Assistant Professor
Dept. Of Commerce
Eternal University, Baru Sahib (H.P.)
Email id: neevia@eternaluniversity.edu.in Neevia Thalyari is currently serving as an Assistant Professor at Eternal University, Baru Sahib, while actively pursuing her Ph.D. in Commerce from Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla. A dedicated researcher, her interests lie in Organizational Behaviour and Human Resource Management, with a particular focus on work-life balance, employee well-being, and workplace dynamics. She has presented research at esteemed national and international conferences, addressing critical issues such as work-family balance, and human rights. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Commerce from St. Bede's College, Shimla and a Master's degree in Commerce from MCM DAV College, Chandigarh, and has successfully cleared UGC NET multiple times. Her academic journey is further enriched by certifications in Brand Management (IIM Bangalore), Digital Transformation (IIM Ahmedabad), Organizational Analysis (Stanford University), and GST, among others. In addition to her teaching and research roles, Neevia has actively engaged in various workshops and training programs, continually enhancing her analytical and technical expertise. With a strong commitment to knowledge dissemination, student engagement, and interdisciplinary learning, she strives to contribute meaningfully to academia and the broader research community. Through her dedication, she aims to shape future professionals and drive impactful research in her field.

