Brief report

Eternal University organized an Expert Talk on Product Development, Innovation and Women Entrepreneurship in Food and Agriculture on 18th September, 2023 in University Auditorium. The esteemed speaker Mr. Abhai Aggrawal, having vast experience in the field of Product development, Innovation and Entrepreneurship especially in the area of renewable energy, delivered an enlightening and inspiring talk on the vision of the Centre of Excellence for Food and Agriculture being established at Eternal University campus.

This special lecture provided valuable insights into the future of agriculture and updated the future leaders about innovations in Food & Agriculture to cultivate a sustainable society. Honorable Dr. Davinder Singh Ji, President of The Kalgidhar Trust, also shared his views on Innovations in Food and Agriculture and encouraged the students for this inspiring career opportunity.

The undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral students of DKSG Akal College of Agriculture and Akal College of Economics, Commerce & Management were participated in the enlightening session and gained immense knowledge about women entrepreneurship opportunities in food and agriculture sector.
